

Following are descriptions of the funds you support with your unrestricted gifts to AAUW Funds (#9110).

THE LEGAL ADVOCACY FUND (#3999) supports the protection of the legal rights of those who are facing discrimination. Some of LAF's programs include Legal Case Support, which protects LAF plaintiffs by supporting workplace sex discrimination cases.

LAF Case Support Travel Grants, which protect AAUW members through educational programs about legal rights delivered by LAF plaintiffs and lawyers.

Campus Outreach Projects, which protect college students from discrimination, harassment, and assault through on-campus program grants.

THE EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FUND (#4336) supports educational and lifelong learning opportunities that give women a chance for a lifetime of success. Some of our programs include Fellowships and Grants: There are hundreds of endowed fund numbers, each for a specific fellowship, career development grant, community action grant, or selected professions award. Continue to reference the same fund numbers you have always used.

The Fellows Alumnae Initiative, which inspires women by providing access to the network of past and current AAUW fellows and grantees.

The Undergraduate Scholarship Clearinghouse, which educates women by allowing students to find and apply for much-needed scholarships from AAUW branches across the country.

THE ELEANOR ROOSEVELT FUND (#9170) supports AAUW research to provide analysis, data, and accurate information about issues that are important to women and girls. Past reports include Behind the Pay Gap (2007) and Where the Girls Are (2008). Our newest report is Why So Few? Women in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (2010).

THE PUBLIC POLICY FUND (#4337) supports advocacy for public policies and laws that are fair to women. Public policy programs include

Government Relations: AAUW advocates on Capitol Hill and in the White House, ensuring that our voices are heard in the halls of Congress and at the tables of power when decisions that affect women and girls are made.

Civic Engagement, which helps women act as their own advocates by providing members with the information and tools to build robust woman-to-woman voter registration and turnout drives in their communities.

Field Organizing, which engages individuals and branches in public policy advocacy through Impact Grants, Action Network, the Two-Minute Activist program, and Washington Update.

THE LEADERSHIP PROGRAMS FUND (#4339) supports programs that develop women's potential to lead in their schools, communities, and country. Leadership programs include

The National Conference for College Women Student Leaders: Attendees develop their leadership skills, networks, and ambition at this acclaimed, intensive three-day conference held annually in Washington, D.C.

Campus Action Projects: AAUW awards grants to campus leaders to deliver programs guided by the findings and recommendations of AAUW research to address a gender-based issue in their community. Replicable or ongoing projects are selected to provide continued leadership training and support for women leaders.

Campaign College, which teaches leaders the skills they need to run for student government. This program successfully increases the number of women who are involved in making decisions that affect all students on campus. These student leaders are also introduced to a national network of women who are running for and holding public offices.
